Additional financial assistance for residents with income up to $30,000:

Additional financial assistance of $150.00 (single and double mastectomy) and $75.00 towards a mastectomy bra, is available once every two years, for residents who have a total gross income less than $30,000 as indicated by line 150 of the individual's income tax notice of assessment or reassessment issued by the Canada Revenue Agency. Ensure the copy is your most recent notice of assessment or reassessment. If you do not have your most recent assessment or reassessment, obtain a copy from Canada Revenue Agency by calling 1-800-959-8281.

- Complete and submit the application to the address or fax number below.
- If applying for additional assistance, include a copy of your notice of assessment or reassessment from the Canada Revenue Agency with this application.
- If applying for reimbursement for a previous purchase, the original store receipt with purchase details is required (a credit or debit card statement is not sufficient). Include your original receipt with your completed application and mail to the address below.
- New applicants to include a physician referral due to mastectomy/lumpectomy.

Please allow five (5) working days after the application is received for processing. You will receive a letter to confirm the outcome of the application. If you have any questions, please call 902-496-7011 or toll free 1-888-894-5353.
