

Free-range Poultry Workshops

THINKFARM will be hosting five free-range poultry workshops across the province in February. These workshops will be targeted at beginner to intermediate level free-range producers. Featured speakers include local experienced producers such as Glen Covey, Kimberly Tilsey, John Duynisveld, Wayne Oulton, Kevin Hamilton, and Aaron Hiltz, primary product inspector Naomi Cripps, and Perennia's poultry specialist Heather McLean (MSc., P.Ag.).

The morning will begin with our featured local producer followed by a session with Naomi Cripps. Following lunch, Heather McLean will be taking the lead and covering topics such as production efficiencies, biosecurity, nutrition and more!
