Accountability Statement

The accountability report of the Nova Scotia Public Prosecution Service for the year ended March 31, 2016 is prepared pursuant to the Finance Act and government policies and guidelines. These authorities require the reporting of outcomes against the Public Prosecution Service's Statement of Mandate for the fiscal year just ended. The reporting of the Public Prosecution Service outcomes necessarily includes estimates, judgments and opinions by the Public Prosecution Service.

We acknowledge that this accountability report is the responsibility of the Nova Scotia Public Prosecution Service. This report is, to the extent possible, a complete and accurate representation of outcomes relative to the goals and priorities set out in the Public Prosecution Service 2015-2016 Statement of Mandate.

In terms of accountability, it should be noted that the Nova Scotia Public Prosecution Service was established in 1990 as the first statutorily-based independent prosecution service in Canada. All prosecutions within the jurisdiction of the Attorney General of Nova Scotia are the responsibility of the Director of Public Prosecutions. Crown Attorneys responsible to the Director conduct prosecutions independently of the Minister. The only limitation on the operational independence of the Director permitted by the Public Prosecutions Act arises when the Attorney General issues written instructions to the Director of Public Prosecutions. These instructions are binding and must be made public. This procedure preserves the ultimate prosecutorial authority of the Attorney General. It is a means of ensuring accountability to the electorate for the manner in which public prosecutions are conducted.

Message from the Director of Public Prosecutions

I am pleased to present this accountability report of the Nova Scotia Public Prosecution Service for 2015-2016.

This year our 92 Crown Attorneys across the province dealt with 38,611 criminal charges and prosecuted 10,161 provincial statute violations.

As part of its ongoing governance of the e-disclosure initiative, the PPS developed a system to support role-based electronic transfers which would eliminate the use of CD/DVDs. The PPS has identified an IT solution for electronic file transfer which will be evaluated in a pilot project in the next fiscal period.

The PPS also entered into detailed negotiations with the Ontario government to test its case management system in Nova Scotia to meet prosecution service management and business intelligence requirements. This software will be fully evaluated and tested in the next fiscal period.

Education and training was again a major priority for the PPS this year. Crown Attorneys attended the PPS's annual fall educational conference for three days of education on a variety of criminal law topics. Additionally, the PPS in collaboration with the RCMP held a specialized training program focusing on internet child exploitation. Some 20 Crown Attorneys attended. Further, a number of Crown Attorneys attended Ontario Crown School and the National Criminal Law Program. Specialized training was also provided to several Crown Attorneys on discrete subjects.

Policy development was a focus this year. Ten PPS policies were updated and four new policies were developed and implemented. The new policies covered image exploitation, publication bans, immunity from prosecution and direct indictments. The PPS is striving for service-wide compliance to its policy on providing advice to police. An internal committee has drafted amendments to the existing policy.

The PPS continued to focus on the prosecution of regulatory offences especially those under the Occupational Health and Safety Act. Prosecutors dedicated to the prosecution of such offences provided training programs for police and investigators.

Reducing delay in the processing of court cases continues to be a focus. The PPS works in collaboration with justice partners in this effort through the Criminal Justice Transformation Group.

The PPS continues to monitor cases for inclusion of appropriate high-risk offenders in the national flagging program. Nova Scotia flagged additional high-risk offenders this year for a total of 38 in a national data base of more than 10,000.

The processing of FOIPOP requests were transitioned this year to the new Corporate Information, Access and Privacy Office.

The PPS continues to provide communications designed to enhance community understanding of the role of the Crown Attorney and of the prosecutorial process. As was the case last year, issues management required significant resources with regard to many ongoing high profile cases.

Measuring Our Performance

OUTCOME DESCRIPTION	WHAT DOES THIS MEASURE TELL US?	WHERE ARE WE NOW?	WHERE DO WE WANT TO BE?
High quality trial work	That the PPS is delivering high quality trial work by Crown Attorneys who attain a performance evaluation of competent or higher; are provided with adequate preparation time for in-court work; are supported by continuing legal education; and, where applicable, are mentored by senior colleagues. These elements ensure the delivery of high quality trial work in presenting the evidence thoroughly and fairly to ensure the proper verdict is reached.	All Nova Scotia Crown Attorneys have achieved a performance rating of competent or higher. They are generally given adequate time to prepare cases for court. They are provided with continuing legal education. A mentoring program has been developed and is in place.	Crown Attorney performance evaluations would be enhanced by in-court monitoring. A case management information system would maximize efficiencies as Crowns prepare for and deliver their cases in court.
High quality appeal work	That the PPS is delivering high quality appeals work by Crown Attorneys who attain a performance evaluation of competent or higher; are provided with adequate preparation time for in-court work; are supported by continuing legal education; and, where applicable, are mentored by senior colleagues. These elements ensure the delivery of high quality appeal work in presenting the evidence thoroughly and fairly to ensure the proper decision is reached.	All Appeals Crown Attorneys have achieved a performance rating of competent or higher. They are always given adequate time to prepare cases for court. They are provided with continuing legal education. A mentoring program has been developed and is in place.	Crown Attorney performance evaluations would be enhanced by in-court monitoring. A case management information system would maximize efficiencies as Crowns prepare for and deliver their cases in court.

Provide police with high quality legal advice and assistance	That the PPS is providing police with high quality legal advice and assistance when requested during the course of police investigations. This helps police in collecting evidence and laying appropriate charges. Ultimately, high quality legal advice to police helps to ensure quality trial work when the case goes to court.	The PPS continues to provide timely responses to requests from police and provincial enforcement officers for legal advice on particular cases or direction on matters of criminal law. The PPS requires Crown Attorneys to record all advice given to police so that the PPS may measure both quality and quantity of advice.	All advice to police should be examined and evaluated to make a determination on volume and Crown workload. As well, a quality assessment analysis should be undertaken.
Provide Crown representation in the development of criminal law and criminal prosecution policy	That the PPS provides input into the development of criminal law and criminal prosecution policy from both an administrative and a frontline perspective.	The PPS participates in joint meetings, including Federal/Provincial/Territorial (FPT) Ministers and Deputy Ministers meetings, Coordinating Committee of Senior Justice Officials and FPT Heads of Prosecutions, meetings of the Provincial Justice Partners Committee and the International Association of Prosecutors. Crown Attorneys also participate in provincial policy initiatives. The PPS continues to liaise with other prosecution services to maintain awareness of best practices for delivery of prosecution services.	To maintain or enhance the existing level of contribution to policy development.

APPENDIX C
Appeals Branch Statistics
2015-2016

The following are statistics related to the operations of the Appeals Branch covering the period April 1, 2015 to March 31, 2016.

The Branch participated in 36 appeals heard by the Court of Appeal. Of this number:

- 3 were initiated by the Crown
- 33 were initiated by offenders

Of the appeals initiated by the Crown, two dealt with acquittal and one with sentence.

Of the 33 appeals initiated by offenders:

- 13 dealt with conviction
- 8 dealt with sentence
- 6 to each of conviction and sentence

Of the appeals initiated by offenders, one fell under the Youth Criminal Justice Act, two included a motion to adduce fresh evidence and in five such cases the offender was self-represented.

The Appeals Branch was involved in 17 appeals that were abandoned, quashed or dismissed without a full hearing in the Court of Appeal or were ordered transferred to the summary conviction appeal court, the Nova Scotia Supreme Court. Four had been initiated by the Crown and 13 by offenders.

The Appeals Branch participated in 201 Chambers motions heard by a single judge in the Court of Appeal. Chambers motions include motions for a hearing date and the filing of appeal books and factums, adjournments, bail pending appeal, extension of time to appeal, directions and status updates in appeals, appointment of counsel in prisoners' appeals and striking appeals from the Court's docket. Uncontested motions are usually conducted over the telephone (teleconference Chambers) and both contested and uncontested motions are heard in open court (regular Chambers).

The Appeals Branch received six recommendations for appeal from trial Crown Attorneys. Of this number, one was approved for appeal.

In the Supreme Court of Canada, one offender filed an application for leave to appeal. The Branch received decisions in three leave applications, one filed by the Branch and two by offenders. The Branch received judgment in one appeal in which the Crown had intervened.
