This Global Note is issued by the Minister of Finance of the Province pursuant to Section 47 of Chapter 365 of the Revised Statutes of Nova Scotia, 1989, the Provincial Finance Act and an Order of the Lieutenant Governor in Council numbered _____, dated _____.

The Province of Nova Scotia (the “Province”) for value received, hereby promises to pay to _____ or registered assigns, on _____, or an earlier call date if called by the Province, upon presentation and surrender of this Global Note, the sum of _____ Dollars ($) in lawful money of Canada, at any branch of the Bank of Montreal in Canada. Interest will be paid to CDS & Co., or registered assigns, on _____, or an earlier call date as shown in the Accrued Interest Schedule below.

Call ScheduleAccrued Interest Schedule
(as a percent of principal)Final Maturity

This Global Note is registered in the name of the nominee of The Canadian Depository for Securities Limited ("CDS") and held by CDS. Beneficial interests in this Global Note are represented through book entry accounts, to be established and maintained by CDS, for financial institutions acting on behalf of beneficial owners as direct and indirect participants of CDS. The Province will not have any responsibility or liability for maintaining, supervising or reviewing any records of CDS relating to such beneficial interests or for any aspect of the records of CDS relating to payments made by CDS on account of beneficial interests in this Global Note.

The Province reserves the right to issue additional Notes of the same maturity and interest rate which will become interchangeable with the Notes subsequent to the first payment of interest on such additional Notes.

The principal and interest secured by this Global Note are payable in lawful money of Canada and the said principal and interest are a charge upon the revenue, money and funds of the Province.

This Global Note shall be registered in the name of CDS & Co. as nominee of Canadian Depository for Securities Ltd. After such registration certified by the Minister of Finance no transfer shall be valid unless made upon the Note Register kept by the Minister of Finance, by the registered holder or his executors or administrators or other legal representatives, or his or their attorney duly appointed by an instrument in writing in form and execution satisfactory to the Minister of Finance upon compliance with such further requirements as may be prescribed from time to time by the Governor in Council. The date of registration of any Note delivered upon any exchange or transfer of Notes shall be such that no gain or loss of interest results from such exchange or transfer. The Minister of Finance shall not be required to make any transfers, registrations or exchanges of Notes for a period of fifteen (15) days preceding any interest payment date.

This Global Note shall not be pledged as security or otherwise charged.

All notices given by the Province to the beneficial owners regarding the Notes of this Series represented by a Global Note shall be delivered to CDS for communication by CDS to the owners of the beneficial interests in such Note and any notice so given shall be deemed to have been given to the beneficial owners on the seventh day after the day on which the said notice was delivered to the Depository.

All notices to be given by the beneficial owners to the Province regarding the Notes of this Series represented by a Global Note, shall be delivered by CDS (acting upon instructions of the owners of beneficial interests in such Notes) to the Department of Finance and any notice so given shall be deemed to have been given to the Province on the day of its delivery.

The Notes are governed by, and shall be construed in accordance with, the laws of the Province of Nova Scotia and the applicable laws of Canada.

Dated at the City of Halifax in the Province of Nova Scotia on the day of 19 .

Workers' Compensation Appeal Tribunal
Alternative Dispute Resolution Regulations

Order in Council 1998-682 made December 18, 1998
Regulations approved by the Governor in Council pursuant to Sections 240 and 255
of the Workers' Compensation Act

The Governor in Council on the report and recommendation of the Minister of Labour dated December 9, 1998, pursuant to Sections 240 and 255 of Chapter 10 of the Statutes of Nova Scotia, 1994-95, the Workers' Compensation Act, is pleased, effective December 18, 1998, to approve of regulations made by the Workers' Compensation Appeals Tribunal, respecting Workers' Compensation Appeals Tribunal Alternative Dispute Resolution, in the form set forth in Schedule "A" attached to and forming part of the report and recommendation.

SCHEDULE "A"

Regulations respecting Workers' Compensation Appeal Tribunal Alternative Dispute Resolution made pursuant to Sections 240 and 255 of Chapter 10 of the Statutes of Nova Scotia, 1994-95,
the *Workers' Compensation Act

Citation

- 1 These regulations may be cited as the Workers' Compensation Appeal Tribunal Alternative Dispute Resolution Regulations.

Alternative dispute resolution process

- 2 (1) Subject to subsection (2), an alternative dispute resolution process will continue to be available in respect of an unresolved appeal to the Workers Compensation Appeals Tribunal that relates to an injury which occurred prior to February 1, 1996.
- (2) The alternative dispute resolution process is voluntary, and if any party to the appeal objects to the application of the process to the case, the process will not proceed.

Agreement

- 3 Where an alternative dispute resolution process results in an agreement by the parties, the Workers' Compensation Appeals Tribunal member who facilitated the process shall assess the agreement to ensure that it is not a patently unreasonable outcome, and, where appropriate, will incorporate the written record of the settlement signed by the parties into the final and binding decision of the Workers' Compensation Appeals Tribunal.

No agreement

- 4 Where no agreement in accordance with Section 3 results from an alternative dispute resolution process,
- (a) discussions which occurred as part of the process are deemed to have been without prejudice and shall be disregarded by the Workers' Compensation Appeals Tribunal in the resolution of the appeal; and
 - (b) the Workers' Compensation Appeals Tribunal will schedule the appeal in the same manner and time frame as if the case had not been included in the alternative dispute resolution process.
