Regulator

Nova Scotia Board of Examiners in Psychology continued

- 3 The Nova Scotia Board of Examiners in Psychology is continued as a regulatory body under the name Nova Scotia Regulator of Psychology with the purpose of regulating the profession of psychology in accordance with the objects set out in Section 6 of the Act.

Bylaw authorization

- 4 The Regulator is authorized to make bylaws under clauses 12(2)(d), (j), (k), (l) and (m) of the Act, in accordance with the Act and these regulations.

Public representatives on Board

- 5 In addition to the requirement of subsection 7(2) of the Act, the number of public representatives on the Board must be no fewer than 3 and no more than 4.

Scope of Practice

Scope of practice of psychology

- 6 (1) The scope of practice of psychology is the application of specialized and evidence-based psychology knowledge, skills and judgment that have been taught in an approved education program or are set out in 1 or more of the following approved by the Board:
- (a) competency frameworks;
 - (b) standards of practice;
 - (c) practice guidelines.
- (2) The scope of practice of psychology as described in subsection (1) includes the performance of any or all of the following activities:
- (a) assessing and providing therapy to a person or group of persons for any or all of the following purposes:
 - (i) to enhance physical and mental health,

- (ii) to achieve effective personal, social and vocational development and adjustment;
 - (b) diagnosing psychological and emotional disorders;
 - (c) performing any other services, roles, functions and activities included in the scope of practice of the designations and licensing categories set out in the bylaws.
- (3) The scope of practice of psychology also includes health promotion, research, education, inter-professional collaboration, consultation, management, administration, advocacy, regulation or system development that is related to the activities and application of specialized and evidence-based psychology knowledge, skills and judgment described in subsections (1) and (2).

Scope of practice of designations and licensing categories

7 Under clauses 12(2)(k) and (l) of the Act, the Regulator may make bylaws setting out all of the following:

- (a) the scope of practice of each designation and licensing category established
 - (i) in these regulations, and
 - (ii) in the bylaws;
- (b) the title protection authorized for each designation and licensing category established in the bylaws.

Registration and Licensing

Practising licence categories

8 The following are the practising licence categories for psychology:

- (a) psychologist practising licence;
- (b) any other category of practising licence established in the bylaws.

Conditional licence categories

9 The following are the conditional licence categories for psychology:

- (a) candidate psychologist conditional licence;
- (b) psychologist conditional licence;
- (c) any other category of conditional licence established in the bylaws.

Application and criteria for registration in practising register

- 10 (1) An application required by Section 34 of the Act must be completed in the form required by the registrar.
- (2) In addition to the completed application, an applicant for registration in a practising register must submit all of the following to the registrar:
- (a) proof satisfactory to the registration and licensing decision maker that the applicant meets all of the following criteria, except if any or all of the criteria are waived under Section 59 of the Act:

 - (c) for all applicants, they have paid the applicable fee, within the time determined by the registrar and using a method acceptable to the registrar.
- (2) The processing of an application under Section 36 of the Act for an applicant described in clause (1)(b) must be completed by the registrar as soon as practicable.
- (3) A review and decision under Sections 37 and 38 of the Act regarding an application made by an applicant described in clause (1)(b) must be completed by the registration and licensing committee as soon as practicable.
- (4) An applicant who has not passed the examinations required for registration, but who otherwise meets the requirements of subsection (1), may be issued a candidate psychologist conditional licence by the registration and licensing decision maker pending the passing of the registration examinations.

Practice and Title Use Restrictions, Services Not Prohibited and Publication Restrictions

Restriction on practice of psychology

14 No person may engage or offer to engage in the practice of psychology or describe their activities as “psychology” or “providing psychological assessment” unless they are 1 of the following:

- (a) a registrant holding a psychologist practising licence, a psychologist conditional licence or a candidate psychologist conditional licence;
- (b) otherwise authorized to practise psychology, in accordance with the Act, these regulations, the General Regulations or the bylaws;
- (c) exempt from the application of the Act, these regulations, the General Regulations or the bylaws.

Restriction on use of “psychologist” title, description or designation

- 15 (1) Except as provided in subsection (2), no person may take or use the title, description or designation of “psychologist”, the abbreviation “R.Psych” or any derivation or abbreviation of them either alone or in combination with other words, letters or descriptions unless the person is 1 of the following:
- (a) a registrant holding 1 of the following under these regulations or the bylaws:
 - (i) a psychologist practising licence, as permitted by clause 40(a) of the Act,
 - (ii) a psychologist conditional licence;
 - (b) otherwise authorized to practise as a psychologist or to use the relevant title, description or designation in accordance with the Act, these regulations, the General Regulations or the bylaws.
- (2) A person who meets all of the requirements for registration in the psychologist practising register except for passing the registration examinations approved by the Board, and who has been issued a candidate psychologist conditional licence pending the passing of the examinations, may use the title “Candidate Psychologist” or “Psychologist (Candidate Register)” only.
- (3) A person who meets all of the following criteria may use the title “professor of psychology”, but must not use any of the titles, descriptions, designations, derivations or abbreviations described in subsection (1):
- (a) they are not a registrant;
 - (b) at a post-secondary educational institution, they
 - (i) hold the academic title of “professor”, and
 - (ii) do any or all of the following:
 - (A) teach psychology,
 - (B) engage in research in psychology.
- (4) A psychology technician may use the title or description of “psychology technician” only.

Restriction on use of bylaw licensing category title, description or designation

- 16 No person may take or use the title, description or designation of a licensing category established in the bylaws under clause 12(2)(l) of the Act, unless the person is 1 of the following:
- (a) a registrant holding a licence in the category that authorizes the use of that title, description or designation;
 - (b) otherwise authorized to practise within the scope of the designation or to use the title, description or designation of that licensing category, in accordance with the Act, these regulations or the bylaws.

Services not prohibited by Act, regulations or bylaws

- 17 In addition to the services set out in Section 164 of the Act, nothing in the Act, these regulations or the bylaws prohibits the practice of psychology by a non-registrant through delegation or assignment of tasks by a registrant, if the practising and delegation or assignment are done in accordance with the requirements approved by the Board.

Restriction on use of title or designation in advertisement or publication 18 In any advertisement or publication, including business cards, websites and signage, that refers to activities that fall within the scope of practice of psychology, the following restrictions apply:

- (a) only a person who is authorized to do so by these regulations may use the following alone or in combination with other words, letters or descriptions:
 - (i) the title of “psychologist” or any other title or designation protected by these regulations or the bylaws,
 - (ii) any derivation or abbreviation of the titles or designations described in subclause (i);
- (b) only a person who is authorized to do so under Section 14 may describe their activities as “psychology” or “providing psychological assessment”.

FinesProfessional conduct fine maximum

19 A fine imposed by the professional conduct committee under clause 110(1)(m) of the Act must not exceed a maximum amount of $100 000.

Nursing Regulations—amendment

Order in Council 2025-338 dated November 18, 2025

Amendment to regulations made by the Board of the Nova Scotia College of Nursing and approved by the Governor in Council pursuant to Section 10 of the Nursing Act

The Governor in Council on the report and recommendation of the Minister of Health and Wellness dated October 20, 2025, and pursuant to Section 10 of Chapter 8 of the Acts of 2019, the Nursing Act, is pleased to approve amendments made by the Board of the Nova Scotia College of Nursing to the Nursing Regulations, N.S. Reg. 76/2019, made by the Board of the Nova Scotia College of Nursing and approved by the Governor in Council by Order in Council 2019-158 dated June 4, 2019, to establish the designation of registered psychiatric nurse, in the manner set forth in Schedule “A” attached to and forming part of the report and recommendation, effective on and after December 1, 2025.

Schedule “A”

I hereby certify that the Board of the Nova Scotia College of Nursing, at a duly convened meeting of the Board held on September 25, 2025, and pursuant to Section 10 of Chapter 8 of the Acts of 2019, the Nursing Act, resolved to amend the Nursing Regulations, N.S. Reg. 76/2019, made by the Board of the Nova Scotia College of Nursing and approved by the Governor in Council by Order in Council 2019-158 dated June 4, 2019, to provide for the creation of the designation of registered psychiatric nurse, in the manner set forth in the attached.

Subject to the approval of the Governor in Council, these amendments are effective on and after December 1, 2025.

Signed at Halifax, Nova Scotia, on September 26, 2025.

Board of the Nova Scotia College of Nursing

Per: Douglas Bungay

CEO and Registrar

Amendment to the Nursing Regulations made by the Board of the Nova Scotia College of Nursing under Section 10 of Chapter 8 of the Acts of 2019,
the *Nursing Act

- 1 Section 2 of the Nursing Regulations, N.S. Reg. 76/2019, made by the Board of the Nova Scotia College of Nursing and approved by the Governor in Council by Order in Council 2019-158 dated June 4, 2019, is amended by adding the following definitions where they belong in alphabetical order:

“Act” means the Nursing Act;

“registered psychiatric nurse” means a member of the nursing profession qualified to use the designation “registered psychiatric nurse”;

- 2 The regulations are further amended by adding the following heading and Sections immediately after Section 30:

Registered Psychiatric Nurses

Registered psychiatric nurse designation

- 31 The designation of registered psychiatric nurse is added as a designation that is regulated under the Act.

Scope of practice for registered psychiatric nurses
