Directive of Attorney General Regarding Detention of Those Accused of Violent Crime

A certified copy of an Order in Council dated September 28, 2007

Violent crime in our province is escalating. Some of those convicted of these crimes who have been released on conditions or under supervision agreements continue to break the law.

I know that you as Director of Public Prosecutions, take this issue very seriously as do Crowns throughout the Province and others involved in the Justice system. We need to send a strong message to those who ignore the laws and inflict harm upon our citizens. Everything possible must be done to provide safety to the public so that there is a sense of security in our communities throughout the Province.

It is as a result of these concerns that I am directing the Public Prosecution Service to employ every appropriate means to ensure that individuals who appear before the Courts after having allegedly committed violent crimes are detained until such time as they can be dealt with through the court process. It is particularly critical that this occur where weapons have been used in the commission of a crime. In the event that an offender is released on bail or on conditions, I am directing the Public Prosecution Service pursue the most appropriate remedy available, as a result of the breach of conditions or other terms of release.

I believe that a strong message to those who would commit violent crimes will instill in them a greater respect for our citizens, our communities and our judicial system.

Dated this 12th day of September, 2007

Murray Scott, M.B.
Attorney General and Minister of Justice

2007-524

The Governor in Council on the report and recommendation of the Minister of Transportation and Public Works dated July 31, 2007, and pursuant to Section 19 of Chapter 235 of the Revised Statutes of Nova Scotia, 1989, the Interpretation Act, and Section 21 of Chapter 371 of the Revised Statutes of Nova Scotia, 1989, the Public Highways Act, is pleased to:

(a) rescind Order in Council dated August 28, 1959 which designated as controlled access a section of highway formerly known as the New Yankeetown Road running between English Corner and Upper Tantallon and extending in a south-westerly direction from the junction with the Hammonds Plains Road at English Corner a distance of approximately five and eight-tenth miles to the junction of Trunk No. 3 Diversion at Upper Tantallon; and
