

Decision-making Guidelines for Accessible Education

Public and private education sectors are encouraged to use these guidelines when developing and reviewing education policies, programs, and services, including accessibility plans.

Human Rights

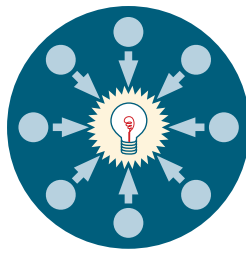

First Voice

Shared Responsibility

Equity & Inclusion

Inclusive Decision Making

Intersectionality

Collaboration & Consistency

Continuous Learning & Improvement

Sufficient &
Sustainable Resources

For more info and a description of each guideline, please visit novascotia.ca/accessibility/resources