

Chapter:	Youth Sentence Administration	Classification:	Public Document
Subject:	Transfer of a Youth Serving an IRCS Sentence to an Adult Correctional Facility
For:	Entire Division	 Authorized by Executive Director

1. Policy

1.1 Correctional Services may, in accordance with the provisions of the Youth Criminal Justice Act (YCJA), transfer a young person to an adult correctional facility to serve the balance of the custody portion of an intensive rehabilitative custody and supervision (IRCS) sentence.

2. Transfer to an Adult Provincial Correctional Facility

2.1 Sections 92 and 93 YCJA provide for the transfer of a young person serving the custody portion of an IRCS sentence to an adult correctional facility. See Policy and Procedures, Subject 21.03.00, Youth Sentences Served in Adult Correctional Facilities.

2.2 Transfer of a young person serving the custody portion of an IRCS sentence to an adult correctional facility will only be initiated with the approval of the Director or Executive Director, Correctional Services.

2.3 The provisions of the Federal/Provincial IRCS Cost Sharing Agreement will continue to apply while the young person is serving the IRCS sentence in a provincial adult correctional facility and upon release to conditional supervision.

2.4 The Manager, Correctional Services will ensure the superintendent of the adult correctional facility is aware for their obligations with respect to

- 2.4.1 annual and optional reviews of sentence
- 2.4.2 setting the conditions for release to conditional supervision in accordance with Policy and Procedures, Subject 20.02.00, Release to Conditional Supervision
- 2.4.3 the responsibilities of the assigned staff case manager as outlined in Policy and Procedures, Subject 26.06.01, Intensive Rehabilitation Custody and Supervision Sentences – Case Management
- 2.4.4 provision of the clinical and correctional programming elements of the IRCS plan
- 2.4.5 other IRCS related operational requirements
