

Adjudicators – Small Claims Court of Nova Scotia

Our goal is to be a diverse workforce that is representative, at all job levels, of the citizens we serve. The Government of Nova Scotia has an Employment Equity Policy. We welcome applications from Indigenous, African Nova Scotian and other Racially Visible persons, Persons with Disabilities and Women in occupations or positions where they are under-represented and other employment equity groups. If you are a member of one of the equity groups, you are encouraged to self-identify on your application form.

The Department of Justice wishes to receive applications from practicing members with a minimum of seven years at the Bar and in good standing with the Nova Scotia Barristers' Society.

There are immediate Adjudicator openings in the following Counties: Kings, Pictou, Lunenburg and Cape Breton Regional Municipality area for applicants who are interested in an appointment as a Small Claims Court Adjudicator.

The Department of Justice also encourages applicants to apply to any other area to which they have an interest in being assigned to be considered as future openings occur. Applications must be submitted to Tanya Pellow by 4:30 pm on Friday, August 16, 2024. An information sheet and application form are available by contacting:
