IN THE MATTER OF: The Emergency Management Act, S.N.S. 1900, c. 8 – and – Renewal of Provincial State of Emergency by Minister (S. 19(2) – Pisiquid Lake, Windsor, 2026-10-29)

Emergency area:

On June 1, 2023, a State of Emergency was declared for the area around and including Pisiquid Lake, Windsor, Hants County in the Province of Nova Scotia.

Nature of the emergency:

Nova Scotia experienced unprecedented wildfire activity in May 2023. Out of control wildfires damaged homes and destroyed large tracks of land. The fire suppression resources in the emergency area were inadequate for a large fire event. The Provincial government has to monitor the availability of essential water resources in the Hants County area for wildfire and fire suppression purposes. These circumstances require the continuation of prompt coordinated action or regulation for the protection of property and for the health and safety of persons in the emergency area.

I am satisfied that an emergency, as defined in clause 2(b) of Chapter 8 of the Acts of 1990, the Emergency Management Act, continues to exist or may exist in the Province and requires the further continuation of the state of emergency in the emergency area identified above.

While under a Provincial State of Emergency, I may require any or all of the actions specifically listed under clauses 14(a) to (m) of the Emergency Management Act, or anything else I determine is necessary for the protection of property and the health or safety of persons in the Province.

The Directions issued from June 1, 2023, until today shall continue in place under this renewal unless terminated or changed by me in writing. Further Directions may be issued and posted for the public throughout the State of Emergency.

This State of Emergency was previously renewed every second Thursday for a 14-day period from June 15, 2023, to October 29, 2026 at 8:00pm.

With the approval of Governor in Council, I hereby further renew the declaration of a State of Emergency for the emergency area identified above to continue on and after 8:00 pm on Thursday, October 29, 2026.

If this Declaration is not renewed or terminated earlier, the State of Emergency remains in effect until 14 days after the date and time it is declared, which is until 8:00 pm on Thursday, November 12, 2026.

Dated October 29, 2026, at Halifax, Nova Scotia,

Hon. Kim Masland, Minister of Emergency Management

IN THE MATTER OF: The Motor Carrier Act, R.S.N.S. 1989, c. 292 – and – Jaskirat Singh o/a Nova Connect Shuttle & Tours (M13154)

TAKE NOTICE THAT JASKIRAT SINGH O/A NOVA CONNECT SHUTTLE & TOURS of Halifax, Nova Scotia, made an application which was received by the Clerk of the Board on October 27, 2026, for issue of a Motor Carrier License as set out in Appendix A hereto.

A copy of the application may be seen at the Offices of the Board, 1601 Lower Water Street, Suite 300, Halifax, Nova Scotia, or on the Board's website at https://nserbt.ca/nsrab/, click on "Matters & Evidence", click "Search Records and in the "Go Directly to Matter" search box, insert Matter No. M13154.

Anyone wishing to object to this Application must file its objection in writing with the Board no later than Wednesday, November 11, 2026. Objections shall include a summary of each reason for opposing the Application. Objections may be filed by regular mail to the Clerk of the Board at the above address, or by using our secure file transfer service at https://board.titanfile.com/NSRAB/, or by fax at (902) 424-3919.

If no objections are received, the Board may grant the application without a public hearing.

If any objections are received, the public hearing of the application will be set.

DATED at Halifax, Nova Scotia this 2nd day of November 2026.

Clerk of the Board

IN THE MATTER OF: The Nova Scotia Civil Procedure Rules

Amendment to Civil Procedure Rule 5.23 and
Supreme Court of Nova Scotia (Family Division)
Practice Memorandum

October 2, 2026

1. The following Rule 5.23(3) is added following Rule 5.23(2):

   5.23(3): Subsections (1) and (2) herein do not apply to applications heard in the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia (Family Division).

2. In the list of registry codes in Rule 32.02(1), the following abbreviation is added after "Ken" Kentville:

   "KenFD" Kentville Family Division

3. The Supreme Court of Nova Scotia (Family Division) Practice Memorandum is revised to include the attached Practice Memorandum Part 5, regarding the appointment and role of the guardian ad litem.

Certificate

I, Deborah K. Smith, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia, certify that on October 2, 2026, a majority of the judges of the court made the foregoing amendments to the Nova Scotia Civil Procedure Rule 5.23 and the Practice Memorandum for the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia (Family Division).

Deborah K. Smith
Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia

Part 5 – Guardian ad litem

When is the appointment of a guardian ad litem considered for a child in a child protection proceeding?

5.01 Where a child, who is the subject of a proceeding pursuant to the Children and Family Services Act, is twelve years of age or older at the time a proceeding is started, or turns twelve during the proceeding, they must be provided notice of the proceeding. When notice is given, the child is asked whether they wish to have a voice before the Court regarding their views and preferences.

5.02 Where the child expresses a desire to have such a voice, the Court may add the child as a party to the proceeding. If the child is under sixteen16 years of age, the child must be represented through a guardian ad litem.

Alternatively, even if the child does not express a desire to have a voice before the Court, the Court may on its own motion or the motion of any party, add the child as a party and appoint a guardian ad litem to represent the child at any time during the proceeding.

5.03 A guardian ad litem who is appointed for a child will continue to have authority when the child reaches sixteen. At the next scheduled Court appearance that follows the child's sixteenth birthday, the Court will determine if the appointment will continue.

5.04 A child who is sixteen years or older is a party to the proceeding, unless the Court orders otherwise. If the child is a party and the child requests, the child is entitled to counsel.

5.05 A guardian ad litem must be represented by counsel for the proceeding.

What is the role of the guardian ad litem?

5.06 A guardian ad litem is appointed by the Court to communicate a child's views and preferences, and to offer recommendations. In some cases, the Court will determine if a guardian ad litem may act for more than one child who is the subject of the child protection proceeding.

(1) What are the duties of a guardian ad litem?

Upon appointment, a guardian ad litem for a child can make any decision a party to the proceeding could make.

The child is named as a party by their guardian ad litem. The guardian ad litem will receive all documents, such as Applications, Affidavits, and Reports filed by any party with the Court. In addition, materials exchanged between the parties will be provided to the guardian ad litem, including all relevant records of the child protection Agency. The guardian ad litem may take all steps necessary to advocate for the child, including requesting specific relief on behalf of the child.

The guardian ad litem is independent. The guardian ad litem is not hired by the Department of Opportunities and Social Development or any other party to the proceeding and is not subject to the direction of the Minister of Opportunities and Social Development or any other party to the proceeding.

As the representative of the child before the Court, the guardian ad litem is entitled to speak with anyone who is involved with the child, including the child protection social workers, parents, service providers, the child's caregivers from the group home or foster home, and the child's school administrators and teachers. However, no person is compelled to provide the guardian ad litem with information.

(2) Initial discussion with the child:

As each child is unique, each discussion with a child by a guardian ad litem will be guided by the particular child's needs, level of maturity and stage of development. In most cases, the initial discussion will address the following areas.

The guardian ad litem will explain, in age-appropriate language:

(a) the reason for the child protection proceeding;

(b) the roles of the Court, parents and their lawyers, and the guardian ad litem and their lawyer;

(c) that the child's safety and well-being will guide the Court's decisions;

(d) that the Court will consider the child's views and preferences; and

(e) that the Court will make decisions that are in the child's best interest.

The guardian ad litem should clearly communicate to the child that they have no personal interest in the child protection proceeding.

The guardian ad litem should inform the child when and how the child's voice will be expressed to the Court and the other parties. The guardian ad litem should explain the guardian ad litem's role to the child, which is twofold:

(i) to bring forward the child's views and preferences; and

(ii) to offer the guardian ad litem's recommendations.

The child's views and preferences, and the guardian ad litem's recommendations are to be provided to the Court in a written report. The form of the report is established by the Court as Form 60A.06B.

The guardian ad litem should explain to the child that they are under a duty to report information they learn from the child that gives them reasonable grounds to suspect that the child, or another child, has suffered, is suffering or may be about to suffer abuse. The guardian ad litem should also explain what may happen when such a report is made.

(3) Information sharing

The guardian ad litem should use discretion in deciding what information will be disclosed to the child about the child protection proceeding as some information may negatively impact the child, such as information about issues the adults involved in the proceeding are addressing.

Where not known to all of the parties, the guardian ad litem should not identify the foster family of the child, the names of other children who may live in the foster or group home, and the address or other identifying information regarding the child's placement.

In each report to the Court, the guardian ad litem should clearly identify what information and/or materials they shared with the child.

If information received from the child does not bear directly on the issues before the Court, the guardian ad litem should be mindful, and where possible respectful, of any concerns the child may express about sharing this information with the other parties, the Court, or both.

(4) How does the guardian ad litem present evidence to the Court?

During the child protection proceeding the guardian ad litem must file reports with the Court, with copies to all parties:

(i) one week prior to the prehearing conference for the protection hearing.

(ii) one week prior to the prehearing conference for the disposition hearing.

(iii) one week prior to a review hearing.

(iv) as directed by a judge.

The form of the report of the guardian ad litem may be in Form 60A.06B.

The guardian ad litem can be required to testify at a contested hearing.

(5) Advocacy

The guardian ad litem shall inform themselves about the child's legal rights, including the child's substantive and procedural rights, and then advocate on their behalf. In addition, a guardian ad litem working with a Mi'kmaq or Aboriginal child shall inform themselves of any relevant, unique rights, protections and customs that may apply.

Where it is in the child's best interests to do so, the guardian ad litem shall inform the child of the options available, discuss these options with the child and then advocate on the child's behalf.

The guardian ad litem should participate in discussions and meetings outside of Court to discuss the child's views and preferences and the guardian ad litem's recommendations, where doing so is in the child's best interests.

The guardian ad litem shall inform themselves of the child's wishes which may include:

(a) contact with family, siblings and/or peer groups;

(b) relationships with non-parties;

(c) attending the same school; or

(d) preservation of cultural identity, customs and practices;

and then advocate on the child's behalf to have these wishes addressed where doing so is in the child's best interests.

The guardian ad litem should have ongoing discussions about services, including culturally appropriate community-based services, that may be available to the child such as:

(a) counselling;

(b) assessments;

(c) services to meet the educational, medical and/or health needs of the child;

(d) access with family (including siblings or extended family or community members); and

(e) placement;

and advocate in this regard on behalf of the child, where doing so is in the child's best interests.

In carrying out their role, the guardian ad litem must understand and work respectfully within the child's culture.

There may be times when a child is unwilling or unable to express their views and preferences due to limitations in cognitive functioning, illness, or otherwise. If so, the guardian ad litem should identify the child's limitations in their report.

The guardian ad litem who is also a professional must be mindful that the role as guardian ad litem is separate from their professional capacity. For example, the role of a guardian ad litem is not therapeutic and there is no authority to conduct an assessment based on the guardian ad litem's professional capacity.

After each Court appearance, the guardian ad litem should report back to the child on the outcome of the guardian ad litem's advocacy initiatives, if any.

(6) How often should the guardian ad litem meet with the child?

The guardian ad litem should meet often enough with the child to permit a meaningful fulfillment of their role which may require more meetings than one prior to each Court appearance. The guardian ad litem shall have contact with the child frequently enough to reliably represent the child's circumstances.

How is the guardian ad litem appointed?

5.07 Who may act as a guardian ad litem?

Any person who is not in a conflict of interest with one of the parties or the child may offer to act as a guardian ad litem. Given the trust relationship necessary, it is expected that those who offer to act as a guardian ad litem will have relevant experience, preferably involving children.

5.08 The guardian ad litem roster

A roster of individuals who express an interest in acting as a guardian ad litem will be maintained in accordance with this Practice Memorandum. The roster will be known as the "Guardian Ad litem Roster".

The Guardian Ad litem Roster is available on www.nsfamilylaw.ca and will only include approved candidates.

A person interested in having their name listed on the "Guardian Ad litem Roster" must provide the following documents:

(a) A completed application on-line form which confirms their interest in acting as a guardian ad litem, and indicates:

(i) the geographical area(s) of Nova Scotia in which they are prepared to work;

(ii) any professional qualifications held;

(iii) any relevant information demonstrating their membership in a diverse group;

(iv) whether they self-identify as Mi'kmaq or from another Aboriginal Nation and their connection to that community, if they wish to self-identify;

(v) their proficiency in any languages (spoken and/or written);

(vi) confirmation they reviewed this Practice Memorandum;

(vii) consent for the disclosure of their name, and the geographic area(s) where they are prepared to work; and

(viii) Consent for the disclosure of their Curriculum Vitae to the Court, lawyers, child protection social workers, and, with the direction of the Court, self- represented parties.

(b) A copy of their Curriculum Vitae;

(c) Three references who can speak to their suitability to act as a guardian ad litem;

(d) A recent Child Abuse Registry check;

(e) A recent Criminal Record check, with a Vulnerable Sectors check;

(f) Where they intend to drive the child:

(i) a recent Driver's Abstract;

(ii) proof of automobile insurance.

5.09 How is a guardian ad litem selected for consideration by the Court?

Any party to the proceeding may propose a person to act as a guardian ad litem. While preferred, it is not mandatory for the person to be on the Court's "Guardian Ad litem Roster".

When reflecting upon who should be proposed to act as a guardian ad litem, consideration may be given to the following:

(i) a request for a specific person;

(ii) a request for a member of a diverse group;

(iii) a request for a person who shares or has an understanding with the child's culture or community of origin; and/or

(iv) a request for a person who speaks a given language.

Where a Mi'kmaq child is involved, priority for appointment of the guardian ad litem should be given in the following order:

(i) a Mi'kmaq guardian ad litem, if available.

(ii) if a Mi'kmaq guardian ad litem is not available, an Aboriginal guardian ad litem.

(iii) if an Aboriginal guardian ad litem is unavailable, another person.

In all cases, the guardian ad litem should demonstrate a competence and understanding of the importance of a Mi'kmaq child's connection with the child's First Nation, heritage, spirituality, customs and traditions.

5.10 What documents are required for appointment?

It is the role of the Court to appoint the guardian ad litem for the child. Rule 60A.06 requires a person seeking to be appointed as a guardian ad litem to file a statement.

All documents filed on behalf of the guardian ad litem become part of the Court's file for the proceeding and must be disclosed to all of the parties. The Court will consider whether the appointment is in the child's best interest and decide whether to appoint the proposed person to act as a guardian ad litem for the child.

5.11 What is the duration of the appointment of the guardian ad litem?

The appointment is for the duration of the child protection proceeding, and is limited to the issues before the Court as they relate to the proceeding. During the appointment, the guardian ad litem has no authority to act on behalf of the child in any other Court proceeding, or otherwise.

The appointment may be terminated upon motion to the Court by any party, including the child or the guardian ad litem, at any time. The Court may also remove the guardian ad litem on its own motion.

5.12 What happens when the child turns sixteen years old during a child protection proceeding?

The guardian ad litem will continue to act for the child unless removed by the Court. If a child turns 16 during an ongoing proceeding, they should be advised that they may ask the Court to remove the guardian ad litem and allow them to be heard directly. If the Court removes the guardian ad litem, the child can retain their own lawyer.

5.13 Who pays the fees and disbursements of the guardian ad litem and their counsel?

The Minister of Opportunities and Social Development is required to pay the reasonable fees and disbursements for the guardian ad litem, counsel for the guardian ad litem, or counsel for the child who is sixteen years or older. The fees and disbursements will be paid in accordance with Regulation 41 made under Children and Family Services Act.
