Statement of Nominators

Under the Education Act, only an “entitled person” may nominate a candidate for election as a member of the Conseil scolaire acadien provincial.

Under the Education Act, an “entitled person” is defined to mean a person who is a Canadian citizen AND

- (a) whose first language learned and still understood is French; OR
- (b) who received his or her primary school instruction in Canada in a French-first-language program; OR
- (c) who is the parent of a child who has received or is receiving primary or secondary school instruction in Canada in a French-first-language program (note that the definition of “parent” in respect to “entitled persons” does not include a guardian or person acting in loco parentis to a child).

I state that I am an “entitled person” within the meaning of this definition.
