

IN THE MATTER OF the NOVA SCOTIA REVIEW BOARD

AND IN THE MATTER OF the accused, MOHAMED ISSAK

AND IN THE MATTER OF a hearing held pursuant to section 672.81(2.1) of the Criminal Code of Canada

DISPOSITION ORDER

WHEREAS on the 27th day of January, 2016, the accused was found not criminally responsible on account of mental disorder on charges of assault with a weapon, contrary to section 267(A) of the Criminal Code, and breach of probation, contrary to section 733.1 of the Criminal Code;

AND WHEREAS the accused is presently detained in hospital, although granted a conditional discharge on March 7th, 2017;

AND WHEREAS a hearing was held at the East Coast Forensic Psychiatric Hospital on the 16th day of October, 2018, to make an order pursuant to section 672.81(2.1) of the Criminal Code;

AND WHEREAS the East Coast Forensic Psychiatric Hospital is designated for the custody, treatment or assessment of the accused, in respect of whom an assessment order, disposition order or placement decision is made.

The Board finds that the hospital was justified in restricting the liberties of the accused. We leave in place the existing conditional discharge.

THIS IS THEREFORE TO COMMAND YOU, the Director, Mental Health Program, Nova Scotia Health Authority, in Her Majesty's name, to execute the terms of this Order. The Board delegates to him authority to direct that the restrictions on the liberty of the accused be increased or decreased within the limits set out herein pursuant to section 672.56(1).

DATED this 19th day of March, 2019, at Truro, Nova Scotia

Peter Lederman, Q.C., Chairperson
