Prescribed Petroleum Products Prices

Order dated July 26, 2018
made by the Nova Scotia Utility and Review Board
pursuant to Section 14 of the Petroleum Products Pricing Act
and Sections 16 to 19 of the Petroleum Products Pricing Regulations

Order*M08815*In the matter of the *Petroleum Products Pricing Act- and -

In the matter of prescribing prices for petroleum products
pursuant to Section 14 of the Petroleum Products Pricing Act and Sections 16 to 19 of the *Petroleum Products Pricing Regulations

Before: Murray E. Doehler, CPA, CA, P. Eng, Member

Whereas the purpose of the Petroleum Products Pricing Regulations is to ensure just and reasonable prices for specified petroleum products taking into consideration the objectives of preserving the availability of such products in rural areas, stabilizing prices of such products and minimizing the variances in prices of such products across the Province;

And whereas the Nova Scotia Utility and Review Board (Board) considered the manner in which it would proceed to set petroleum product prices in its decision, 2006 NSUARB 108, issued on October 16, 2006;

And whereas the Board revised the wholesale margin effective January 4, 2013, in its decision, 2012 NSUARB 213, issued on December 12, 2012;

And whereas the Board revised the retail margin and the transportation allowance effective October 28, 2016, in its decision, 2016 NSUARB 168, issued on September 26, 2016;

And whereas the average of the average of the daily high and low reported product prices (in Canadian cents) for the week ended July 25, 2018, are:

Grade 1 Regular gasoline	71.4¢ per litre
Ultra-low-sulfur diesel oil	73.5¢ per litre

Now therefore the Board prescribes the benchmark prices for petroleum products to be:

Gasoline:

Grade 1	71.4¢ per litre
Grade 2	74.4¢ per litre
Grade 3	77.4¢ per litre
Ultra-low-sulfur diesel oil	73.5¢ per litre

And now therefore the Board has determined, based on historical data regarding price changes and to achieve revenue neutrality, it is appropriate to apply, and the Board so orders, forward averaging corrections of:

Gasoline:	nil¢ per litre
Ultra-low-sulfur diesel oil:	0.2¢ per litre [ sic ]

And now therefore the Board prescribes the prices for petroleum products as set forth in Schedule “A” effective on and after 12:01 a.m., July 27, 2018.

Dated at Halifax, Nova Scotia, this 26th day of July, 2018.

sgd: Bruce A. Kiley
Clerk of the Board

Residential Tenancies Regulations—amendment

Order in Council 2018-207 dated July 31, 2018
Amendment to regulations made by the Governor in Council pursuant to Section 26 of the Residential Tenancies Act

The Governor in Council on the report and recommendation of the Minister of Service Nova Scotia dated July 10, 2018, and pursuant to Section 26 of Chapter 401 of the Revised Statutes of Nova Scotia, 1989, the Residential Tenancies Act, is pleased to amend the Residential Tenancies Regulations, N.S. Reg. 190/1989, made by the Governor in Council by Order in Council 89-1118 dated September 26, 1989, to provide for alternative hearing formats and for procedures for submitting evidence for use at hearings, in the manner set forth in Schedule “A” attached to and forming part of the report and recommendation, effective on and after July 31, 2018.

Schedule “A”

Amendment to the Residential Tenancies Regulations
made by the Governor in Council under Section 26 of Chapter 401 of the Revised Statutes of Nova Scotia, 1989,
the *Residential Tenancies Act

- 1 Clause 4F(b) of the Residential Tenancies Regulations, N.S. Reg. 190/1989, made by the Governor in Council by Order in Council 89-1118 dated September 26, 1989, is amended by striking out “sworn affidavit of service” and substituting “certificate of service”.

- 2 (1) The regulations are further amended by striking out the heading immediately before Section 25 and ~~the~~ substituting the heading “Serving copy of application”.
- (2) Subsection 25(4) of the regulations is amended by adding “or Form L1: Certificate of Service” immediately after “Affidavit of Service”.
- 3 The regulations are further amended by redesignating Section 25A as Section 25AB and adding the following Sections immediately after Section 25:

Submitting evidence for use at hearing held by Director

25A (1) Each party to a matter to be heard by the Director under Section 17 of the Act must submit all of the following to each of the other parties and to the Director:

- (a) copies of all evidence that the party intends to rely on at the hearing;
  - (b) a document identifying the types of evidence submitted under this subsection and the number of each type of evidence.
- (2) A submission under subsection (1) must be made in sufficient time so that each recipient receives it at least 2 days before the date of the hearing, unless a later time is permitted under subsection (6).
- (3) A submission under subsection (1) must be by 1 of the following methods:
- (a) personal service, which, for a submission to the Director, may be to an Access Nova Scotia office;
  - (b) registered mail;
  - (c) courier, but only if the submitting party retains a confirmation of delivery;
  - (d) e-mail, but only if
    - (i) the receiving party consents to receiving it by e-mail, except that no consent is required for a submission to the Director by e-mail, and
    - (ii) the submitting party receives a confirmation of delivery from the receiving party.
- (4) At a hearing, each party must be prepared to demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Director that the evidence and document referred to in subsection (1) were submitted to all other parties to the matter as required by this Section.
- (5) A party who submits evidence must keep an exact copy of the evidence submitted
- (a) for at least 10 days after an order in the matter is made by the Director under Section 17A of the Act; or
  - (b) if the order of the Director is appealed to the Small Claims Court, until a Small Claims Court order in the matter has been made under Section 17D of the Act.
- (6) The Director has the discretion to permit any party to submit evidence at any time, including at the time of the hearing.

- (7) If the Director permits a party to submit evidence later than as required by subsection (2),
- (a) the other parties must be given an opportunity to review the evidence before the hearing proceeds;
  - (b) any of the other parties may request that the hearing be adjourned; and
  - (c) the Director may adjourn the hearing to another time if an adjournment is necessary for any of the other parties to receive copies of the evidence being submitted.

Types of evidence that may be submitted for use at hearings

25AA(1) The Director may impose restrictions on the acceptable format and file types for evidence being submitted under Section 25A in digital format.

- (2) If evidence submitted is not in an acceptable format or quality to support a fair and appropriate hearing, the Director may require the party who submitted the evidence to resubmit it in a different format or to submit exact copies.
- (3) The following types of evidence must not be submitted:
  - (a) physical objects;
  - (b) living or dead specimens.
- (4) For greater certainty, a photograph of the types of evidence referred to in subsection (3) may be submitted.
- (5) A party must make the original of any evidence available to the Director if requested to do so, and the Director has the discretion to require that the original document be placed into evidence rather than a copy.

4 Subsection 25D(4) of the regulations is amended by striking out “sworn affidavit” and substituting “certificate”.

“school academic year” means the school academic year established by subsection 8(1) of the Education Act;

“senior staff”, in relation to a regional centre for education, means senior staff as defined in the Ministerial Education Act Regulations made under the Education Act and, in relation to the Conseil, means senior staff as defined in the Ministerial Education Act Regulations made under the Education (CSAP) Act;

“superintendent” means the superintendent of the Conseil under the Education (CSAP) Act.

Temporary return to classroom at administrator’s request

- 3 (1) In this Section, “temporary return”, in relation to an administrator, means a temporary return of the administrator to a classroom teaching position at the administrator’s request under subsection (2).
- (2) An administrator may request the approval of the employer to return to a classroom teaching position on a temporary basis for a period of no longer than 2 years.
- (3) A temporary return may be extended to a period longer than 2 years if both the administrator and the employer agree to the extension.
- (4) An administrator whose request for a temporary return is approved by the employer must receive a salary for the first year of the temporary return of at least the amount the administrator would have received had the administrator not returned to a classroom teaching position, including any administrative allowance under Section 7.
- (5) Subject to subsection (6), at the conclusion of a temporary return an administrator must return to the assignment the administrator held immediately before the temporary return, unless any of the following occurs:
- (a) the administrator provides notice in writing to the employer of the administrator’s election to return to a classroom position on a permanent basis in accordance with subsection 22(3) of the Act;
- (b) the employer reassigns the administrator to a classroom teaching position under Section 16 of the Act;
- (c) the administrator is assigned to another position as determined by the employer after consultation with the administrator.
- (6) If the temporary return of an administrator who makes an election in accordance with subsection 22(3) of the Act concludes on a date earlier than the last day of the school academic year in which the election is made, the employer may direct the administrator to return to or take up 1 of the following until the date the election takes effect in accordance with subsection 22(5) of the Act:
- (a) the position the administrator held with the employer immediately before the temporary return;
- (b) a classroom teaching position;
- (c) another position, as determined by the employer after consultation with the Administrator.

Temporary return to classroom at employer's direction

- 4 An administrator who is assigned by the employer to a classroom teaching position on a temporary basis other than as requested by the administrator under Section 3 must receive a salary for at least the first year of the temporary assignment of at least the salary the administrator would have received had the temporary assignment not been made, including any administrative allowance under Section 7.

Association membership during temporary return to classroom

- 5 For greater certainty, during the temporary return of an administrator to a classroom teaching position, the administrator remains an administrator and a member of the Association and must pay any required membership fees to the Association in accordance with the Act and the Association's bylaws.

Salary*Base salary for administrators other than senior staff

- 6 (1) Effective August 1, 2018, an administrator other than senior staff of an education entity must be paid a base salary in accordance with the 2018-2019 Salary Scale set out in Schedule A1, as applicable to the administrator's class of teacher's certificate or permit and the experience and position held by the administrator.
- (2) Effective August 1, 2019, an administrator other than senior staff of an education entity must be paid a base salary in accordance with the 2019-2020 Salary Scale set out in Schedule A2, as applicable to the administrator's class of teacher's certificate or permit and the experience and position held by the administrator.

Administrative allowance for administrators other than senior staff

- 7 (1) Effective August 1, 2018, an administrator, other than senior staff of an education entity, is entitled to an administrative allowance based on the administrator's position and the number of regularly employed teachers in the administrator's area of responsibility in accordance with Schedule B1.
- (2) Effective August 1, 2019, an administrator, other than senior staff of an education entity, is entitled to an administrative allowance based on the administrator's position and the number of regularly employed teachers in the administrator's area of responsibility in accordance with Schedule B2.
- (3) For the purpose of calculating an administrative allowance under this Section,
- (a) a "regularly employed teacher" means a full-time teacher or a term contract teacher prorated to full time equivalency, but does not include a teacher who is on leave for the full school academic year; and
- (b) the number of regularly employed teachers must be determined as of last teaching day of September of the school academic year.

Salary for administrator who is senior staff

- 8 (1) For greater certainty, an administrator who is senior staff of a regional centre for education is entitled to compensation calculated in accordance with the compensation framework for senior staff of regional centres set out in Sections 70 to 79 of the Governor in Council Education Act Regulations made under the Education Act.
- (2) For greater certainty, an administrator who is senior staff of the Conseil is entitled to compensation calculated in accordance with the compensation framework for senior staff of the Conseil set out in Sections 69A to 69J of the Ministerial Education Act Regulations made under the Education (CSAP) Act.

Recognition and calculation of service

9 For the purpose of calculating an administrator's salary increment for a school academic year, an administrator's total service must be recognized and calculated in the same manner and on equivalent terms and conditions as for the service of a unionized teacher employed by the administrator's education entity.

Loss of salary or service

10 An administrator must not suffer a loss of salary or service accrual for any period of leave or absence if a unionized teacher engaged by the administrator's education entity would not suffer a loss of salary or service accrual for the equivalent leave or absence under the terms of a professional agreement.

Deferred salary leave plan

11 An administrator employed on a permanent basis may enter into an agreement with the employer for a deferred salary leave plan for a 6-month or 1-year pre-paid leave of absence.

Travel expenses

12 The employer must reimburse an administrator for kilometres travelled in the performance of the administrator's duties in accordance with the Kilometrage Rates, Monthly Allowances and Transportation Allowances Regulations made under the Civil Service Act.

Benefit Plans*Insurance

13 In accordance with the Act and the Teaching Profession Act, an administrator is entitled to participate on the same terms and conditions as a unionized teacher, with necessary changes, in benefit plans, services and programs established, sponsored or otherwise provided for the benefit of unionized teachers, including all of the following:

- (a) Union Life and AD&D Policy;
- (b) NSTU Total Care Policy;
- (c) Extended Benefits (Dental) provisions of the NSTU Total Care Policy;
- (d) Long Term Disability Insurance Policy;
- (e) any other benefit plan, service or program established, sponsored or otherwise provided for the benefit of unionized teacher by the Union or the employer.

Union Life and AD&D Policy

14 The employer must pay 100% of the monthly premium for the existing Union Life and AD&D Policy for coverage in the amount of $50 000 for each administrator.

NSTU Total Care Policy

15 The employer must pay 100% of the monthly premium of the existing NSTU Total Care Policy for each administrator who holds the single or family policy.

Optional extended dental benefits

- 16 (1) An administrator may elect or decline to add Extended Benefits (Dental) provisions to their NSTU Total Care Policy.
- (2) The employer must pay 65% of the monthly premium for an Administrator who has elected to add the Extended Benefits (Dental) provisions to their NSTU Total Care Policy.

- (3) An administrator is entitled to only the approved benefits under the Extended Benefits (Dental) provisions of the NSTU Total Care Policy to which a unionized teacher is entitled under a professional agreement.

Long term disability insurance premiums

- 17 (1) Except as provided in subsection (2), the employer must pay 50% of the monthly premium of the NSTU Long Term Disability Policy for each administrator who obtains the policy.
- (2) If the employer was obligated to pay 70% of the monthly premium of the NSTU Long Term Disability Policy for an administrator immediately before the effective date of these regulations, the employer must pay 70% of the monthly premium for the administrator.

Deduction of contributions and premiums

- 18 On receipt of written authorization from an administrator to deduct any of the following amounts, the employer must deduct the amount from the salary of the administrator and remit the amount deducted to the appropriate authority:
  - (a) the administrator's portion of contributions and premiums in respect of a benefit plan referred to in these regulations;
  - (b) payments due to the Teachers Plus Credit Union;
  - (c) Canada Savings Bonds payments.

Contributions and premiums during temporary assignment

- 19 The contributions and premiums payable by an administrator under a benefit plan during a temporary assignment or temporary return to a classroom teaching position must be calculated based on the salary the employee is receiving during the temporary assignment or return.

Notification of family or marital status change

- 20 For the purpose of determining the contributions and premiums for an administrator under a benefit plan, an administrator must immediately notify the employer and the Association of any material change in their marital or family status.

Personal liability insurance

- 21 (1) An education entity must obtain personal liability insurance coverage for an administrator while the administrator is acting as an agent of the education entity and within the scope of the administrator's responsibilities.
- (2) A personal liability insurance policy must provide an administrator with coverage in an amount and on terms and conditions equivalent to the personal liability insurance coverage provided by an education entity for unionized teachers.

Insurance for transporting students

- 22 An administrator must be included under an education entity's insurance policy providing protection for teachers and administrators using a personal vehicle to transport students with the approval of the education entity.

Indemnity

- 23 (1) The employer must indemnify an administrator from a civil action or other proceeding brought against the administrator that arises from the administrator's lawful performance of their duties or a duty that the administrator, acting in good faith, reasonably believed to be lawful.

- (2) The indemnity in subsection (1) includes the legal costs actually and reasonably incurred in defence of the action or proceeding, on terms and conditions equivalent to those that apply to the employer's indemnity of a unionized teacher in equivalent circumstances.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply in respect of any of the following:
  - (a) a criminal proceeding brought against the administrator, unless the employer agrees in advance to pay some or all of the legal costs associated with the proceeding;
  - (b) any action or proceeding between the employer and the administrator in respect of the administrator's employment;
  - (c) costs or expenses associated with an appeal by the administrator of a decision in relation to a proceeding or action, unless the costs or expenses were undertaken with the prior approval of the employer.

Additional benefits provided by Association

24 In addition to the benefits referred to in these regulations, an administrator is entitled to any benefits and services provided by the Association, at the expense of the Association or the administrator, in accordance with the bylaws.

Leave

Leave entitlement

- 25 (1) An administrator is entitled to periods of leave with or without pay for the same periods and on the equivalent terms and conditions as a unionized teacher engaged by the same education entity, with necessary changes.
- (2) For greater certainty, an administrator is entitled to the following categories of leave, which must be granted for periods and under terms and conditions in accordance with subsection (1):
- (a) pregnancy leave;
  - (b) adoption leave;
  - (c) parental leave;
  - (d) leave for birth of a child for a non-birth parent;
  - (e) leave for injury on duty;
  - (f) compassionate care leave;
  - (g) sick leave;
  - (h) bereavement leave;
  - (i) leave of absence without pay up to one year;
  - (j) education leave;
  - (k) leave to attend retirement seminars;

- (l) other or special leave, as applicable to a unionized teacher employed by the same education entity as the administrator.

Pregnancy leave allowance

- 26 (1) The employer must pay the following allowance to an administrator taking pregnancy leave in accordance with these regulations:
- (a) 75% of the administrator's weekly pay rate for the 1-week employment insurance waiting period imposed by the Government of Canada, less any other income received by the administrator during that waiting period;
- (b) for up to 5 consecutive weeks after the 1-week employment insurance waiting period, an amount equal to the difference between the administrator's weekly employment insurance benefit and 93% of the administrator's weekly pay rate.
- (2) An administrator is entitled to payment of the pregnancy allowance on terms and conditions equivalent to those that apply to a unionized teacher entitled to a pregnancy allowance under a professional agreement.

Parental leave allowance

- 27 (1) The employer must pay the following allowance to an administrator on parental or adoption leave in accordance with these regulations:
- (a) 75% of the administrator's weekly pay rate for the 1-week employment insurance waiting period imposed by the Government of Canada, less any other income received by the administrator during that waiting period;
- (b) for up to 10 consecutive weeks after the 1-week employment insurance waiting period, an amount equal to the difference between the administrator's weekly employment insurance benefit and 93% of the administrator's weekly pay rate.
- (2) An administrator is entitled to payment of the parental allowance on terms and conditions equivalent to those that apply to a unionized teacher entitled to a parental allowance under a professional agreement.

Schedule A: Definitions for Schedules A1 and A2

- 1 In this Schedule, a reference to a Teacher's Certificate is to a Teacher's Certificate granted under the Teacher Certification Regulations made under the Education Act.

N.S. Reg. 147/2018

Made: August 2, 2018

Filed: August 7, 2018

Prescribed Petroleum Products Prices

Order dated August 2, 2018
made by the Nova Scotia Utility and Review Board
pursuant to Section 14 of the Petroleum Products Pricing Act
and Sections 16 to 19 of the Petroleum Products Pricing Regulations

Order*M08817*In the matter of the *Petroleum Products Pricing Act- and -

In the matter of prescribing prices for petroleum products
pursuant to Section 14 of the Petroleum Products Pricing Act and Sections 16 to 19 of the *Petroleum Products Pricing Regulations

Before: Stephen T. McGrath, LL.B., Member

Whereas the purpose of the Petroleum Products Pricing Regulations is to ensure just and reasonable prices for specified petroleum products taking into consideration the objectives of preserving the availability of such products in rural areas, stabilizing prices of such products and minimizing the variances in prices of such products across the Province;

And whereas the Nova Scotia Utility and Review Board (Board) considered the manner in which it would proceed to set petroleum product prices in its decision, 2006 NSUARB 108, issued on October 16, 2006;

And whereas the Board revised the wholesale margin effective January 4, 2013, in its decision, 2012 NSUARB 213, issued on December 12, 2012;

And whereas the Board revised the retail margin and the transportation allowance effective October 28, 2016, in its decision, 2016 NSUARB 168, issued on September 26, 2016;

And whereas the average of the average of the daily high and low reported product prices (in Canadian cents) for the week ended August 1, 2018, are:

Grade 1 Regular gasoline	72.4¢ per litre
Ultra-low-sulfur diesel oil	73.8¢ per litre

Now therefore the Board prescribes the benchmark prices for petroleum products to be:

Gasoline:
Grade 1	72.4¢ per litre
Grade 2	75.4¢ per litre
Grade 3	78.4¢ per litre
Ultra-low-sulfur diesel oil	73.8¢ per litre

And now therefore the Board has determined, based on historical data regarding price changes and to achieve revenue neutrality, it is appropriate to apply, and the Board so orders, forward averaging corrections of:

Gasoline:	plus 0.2¢ per litre
Ultra-low-sulfur diesel oil:	minus 0.4¢ per litre

And now therefore the Board prescribes the prices for petroleum products as set forth in Schedule "A" effective on and after 12:01 a.m., August 3, 2018.

Dated at Halifax, Nova Scotia, this 2nd day of August, 2018.

sgd: Lisa Wallace
Clerk of the Board
