

Once an agreement is approved, signatures are required for the funding agreement. If you are a legal signing officer for the agreement, you will be provided an Invitation to Sign email which will contain a link unique to each signing officer. The link will allow you to view and sign the funding agreement.

You will receive an Invitation to Sign (via email) if you are either a LaMPSS user or an individual who is a contact for the Organization. You can view and sign the funding agreement via LaMPSS Online or through NSiD.

Download an Agreement and Provide a Scanned Signature

When you login with your invitation link, either via LaMPSS or NSiD, you are directed to the landing page for signing your funding agreement. You received this email since the agreement is now approved, and it is ready for signatures. Click Start now → to proceed.

Program areas determine what signing options are available to organizations, you may see up to three different options. If you wish to provide an Ink Signature then Mail the funding agreement, select that option and click Continue.

The screenshot shows a web page for signing a funding agreement. At the top, there is a Nova Scotia logo and a search bar. The main heading is "Sign your funding agreement for Co-op Education Incentive". Below this, it lists "Youth Initiatives" and "Labour, Skills and Immigration". There is a field for "Agreement ID" with a clipboard icon. The question "How would you like to sign this funding agreement?" is followed by three radio button options: "Electronic Signature", "Ink Signature, Scan and Attach", and "Ink Signature and Mail". The "Ink Signature and Mail" option is selected and highlighted with a red box. Below the options are "Continue" and "Back" buttons. The "Continue" button is highlighted with a red circle.

After you select Continue, you will be navigated to the LaMPSS Online page to view the funding agreement. You are required to print, date, and sign the agreement. If you have more than one legal signing officer for your organization on this agreement, only one legal signing officer will either sent a scanned copy by fax or send the original contract by mail to the address specified on the front page of the funding agreement.
