

THE DR. P. ANTHONY JOHNSTONE MEMORIAL ENTRANCE SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

$6,000 Admission Scholarship Fund

This entrance scholarship was established by the Province of Nova Scotia in 1991 to encourage young people to educate themselves on human rights issues in Canada. It honours the life and work of the late Dr. P. Anthony Johnstone, a former Executive Director of the Nova Scotia Human Rights Commission.

This is a non-renewable entrance scholarship and applies to the first year of study only.

To be eligible for this scholarship, you must be:

- A graduate of a Nova Scotia high school in this academic year (not as a result of upgrading)
- A resident of Nova Scotia
- A student who is entering the first year of an undergraduate Bachelor's degree program this fall, and who has demonstrated an interest in multiculturalism and human rights
- A student who will study for this degree at a university in Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, or Prince Edward Island

Application forms are available from:

- Your high school guidance counsellor
- Our website at: novascotia.ca/lae/scholarships

The application deadline is March 31.
