

Canada's Parks Day 2004

Photos by: Nick Deagle, Brett Balsler, Emily Gratton

Here's how three Provincial Parks
– Mira River,
Blomidon and
Caribou - Munroe's
Island celebrated
Canada's Parks
Day 2004

*Top: French and English battalions from Fortress Louisbourg re-enact battles at Mira River.
Below from Left: Exploring the world of insects at Caribou Park, Entomologist Eric Georgeson entertains with stories and samples of insects from around the world.*

At Mira River: English soldier marches for battle reenactment while piper greets park visitors. Adults don their finest 'dress up' clothes while kids enjoy a cool treat. Traditional tunes get toes tapping.

At Blomidon: Getting some help designing a kite, and later proudly displaying the results. A new kite soars for it's young designer.

