e) Reasonableness

This policy shall apply to requests for reasonable quantities of records.

2. DEFINITIONS

- (a) access may be taken to mean under this policy, either the provision of a copy of the records in question or providing a means and opportunity for the applicant to view the records, whichever, in the sole discretion of the Department, is administratively most efficient;
- (b) active dissemination is the periodic and proactive release of information or records in the absence of a request using mechanisms such as the Internet, libraries, etc. See attached Appendix "B" for examples of actively disseminated information;
- (c) FOIPOP access is the release of an existing record in response to a formal FOIPOP application made under the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act;

- (d) confidential information includes information:
- (a) that would reveal
    - (i) trade secrets of a third party, or
    - (ii) commercial, financial, labour relations, scientific or technical information of a third party;

  - (c) the disclosure of which could reasonably be expected to
    - (i) harm significantly the competitive position or interfere significantly with the negotiating position of the third party,
    - (ii) result in similar information no longer being supplied to the public body when it is in the public interest that similar information continue to be supplied,
    - (iii) result in undue financial loss or gain to any person or organization, or
    - (iv) reveal information supplied to, or the report of, an arbitrator, mediator, labour relations officer or other person or body appointed to resolve or inquire into a labour-relations dispute;
- (e) record “includes books, documents, maps, drawings, photographs, letters, vouchers, papers and any other thing on which information is recorded or stored by graphic, electronic, mechanical or other means, but does not include a computer program or any other mechanism that produces records”. - (g) routine access is the release, in full or in part, of certain types of administrative or operational records as a matter of course in response to a request without the need for a formal application for records under the FOIPOP Act.

3. POLICY OBJECTIVES

This policy reflects the spirit of openness and accountability of the FOIPOP Act. The objective is to provide a reasonable alternative for access to the records listed in Appendix “A”.

Procedures under this policy are intended reduce the administrative burden involved in processing FOIPOP applications for certain types of records. The approach is not intended to create more demands on resources than the current system of processing requests under the formal FOIPOP application process.

  - all agencies, associations, boards, commissions reporting to the Minister of the Department.

It is important to ensure that the application of the Routine Access policy of the Department not unduly interfere with the day-to-day operations of the Department.

- i. Nothing in this Policy shall be taken to mean that the Department is required to create or maintain records that it would not normally have in its custody or control.
- j. The kind and content of records identified under this Policy, shall be of sufficiently standardized or consistent format, that they would not normally need to be pre-screened for compliance with FOIPOP principles.
