

Bornish Hill Nature Reserve

County

Inverness

Size

1140 ha

Classification

Nature Reserve

Status

Expansion

Conditions Apply?

Yes.

Overview

Old hardwood forest tracts adjacent to Bornish Hill Nature Reserve

Ecological Values

Good representation of Judique Plain and Hills Natural Landscape

Old/mature tolerant hardwood forest

Within breeding range of provincially endangered Lynx

Outdoor Recreation Values

Hiking

Hunting and trapping

Forestry Values

Primarily mature hardwood and mixedwood with some mature and young softwood

Some past selection harvesting

Includes several stands currently unavailable for forestry due to DNR old forest policy

Steep slopes limit forestry potential in some parts of this area

Other Resource Values

Medium mineral potential

Portion of area under mineral exploration license

Medium petroleum potential

Medium wind potential

Conditions

Legal protection subject to addressing mineral rights and review of land trade options.

Exclusions and Vehicle Access

Snowmobile route excluded

Additional Comments

