

MacRae Brook Nature Reserve

County

Victoria

Size

383 ha

Classification

Nature Reserve

Status

New

Conditions Apply?

No

Overview

Mature to old mixed forest with karst features

Ecological Values

Mature climax hardwood forest of Sugar Maple and Yellow Birch

Some highland Balsam Fir stands

Steep forested slopes and ravines

Karst features on lower slopes include sinkholes and ponds

Tributary to Baddeck River, an important Atlantic Salmon river

Outdoor Recreation Values

Hunting

Forestry Values

Mature hardwood with small amount of softwood

Steep slopes inhibit forestry operations in most of this area

Other Resource Values

High mineral potential

Medium petroleum potential

Medium to low wind potential

Conditions

Exclusions and Vehicle Access

Final boundaries and OHV trail consideration subject to potential land exchange

Additional Comments

