

Brule Shore Provincial Park

County

Colchester

Size

9.47 Hectares

Classification

Unclassified

Status

Reserve

Location NS Atlas

29 X 1

Managed As

Supporting Park

Overview

Coastal property on the Northumberland Strait

Protection Values

Publically-owned coastal property in a region where coastal lands are largely privately-owned and highly fragmented. Sandy shoreline and single sand dune with accompanying wetland.

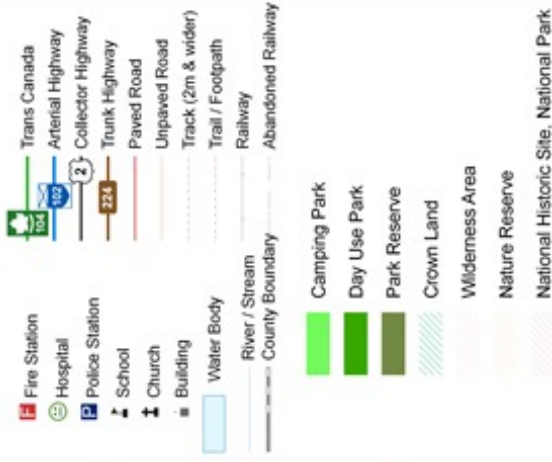

Tourism Values

Coastal property with 245 metres of shoreline on the Northumberland Strait; just off the Northumberland Shore region.

Outdoor Recreation Values

Beach access, swimming, picnicking

© Universal Transverse Mercator (UTM) Projection, Zone 20, Central Meridian 63°00' West, North American Datum (NAD) 1983.
© Crown Copyright, Province of Nova Scotia, 2012.
All rights reserved.

Data Sources:
Nova Scotia Topographic Database 2010; Service Nova Scotia and Municipal Relations
Wilderness Areas and Nature Reserves 2012; NS Department of Environment
Crown Land, Provincial Parks and Park Reserves 2012;
Use Lands 2007; NS Department of Natural Resources
Produced by the Nova Scotia Department of Natural Resources, 2012.
The Province of Nova Scotia accepts no liability for any errors, omissions, or faults on this map.

