

R. v. _____

PPS Office: _____

PPS File No. _____

SPOUSAL/PARTNER VIOLENCE - CHECKLIST

ARRAIGNMENT

1. Was the accused brought to court in custody? (If no, go to the next section.) 9Y 9N
- (a) Was this a case in which it was appropriate to oppose release? 9Y 9N
- (b) Was the accused remanded in custody? 9Y 9N
2. If the accused was released, what were the conditions of release?
- (a) no contact with complainant 9Y
- 9N
- (b) no weapons 9Y 9N
- (c) other 9Y9N
3. How did the Crown Attorney notify the complainant of the release conditions?
- Through the police ____ Through Victims' Services ____ Directly ____
- Crown Attorney (initials) _____

VICTIMS' SERVICES REFERRAL

4. Did the Crown Attorney refer the complainant to the Victims' Services Division of the Department of Justice? 9Y 9N
5. To your knowledge, did another person or agency refer the complainant to the Victims' services Division? 9Y 9N
- Crown Attorney (initials) _____

GUILTY PLEA/TRIAL

6. Was the complainant interviewed by the Crown Attorney? 9Y 9N
7. Was there a recantation by the complainant? 9Y 9N
- If yes, did the prosecutor
- (a) inquire re the cause of recantation? 9Y 9N
- (b) advise the complainant of available support services? 9Y 9N
- (c) instruct the police to take a fresh statement from the complainant? 9Y 9N
8. Was there a guilty plea? 9Y 9N
9. If a trial was held, was the accused found guilty? 9Y 9N
- Crown Attorney (initials) _____

SENTENCING

10. What sentence was recommended by the Crown Attorney?
- Federal ____ Provincial ____ Conditional Sentence ____ Fine ____ Probation ____
11. If probation was imposed, what conditions were recommended?
- Counselling ____ No contact ____ No weapons ____ Other ____

Crown Attorney (initials) _____