

sent September 13, 2021

REGISTRAR GENERAL'S DIRECTIVE (COVID-19/ORIGINAL DOCUMENTATION):

The Registrar General's Directive dated March 18, 2020 (entitled "Registrar General's Directive (COVID 19/ORIGINAL DOCUMENTATION) is extended to allow for consultation on legislative or regulatory changes which may be required to make the interpretation permanent. The Directive will continue until such time as it is expressly revoked by this office (which will coincide with any necessary regulatory or legislative changes). For greater clarity, this Directive will continue in effect beyond the period in which the Province of Nova Scotia is asking Nova Scotians to practice social distancing.

Sincerely,

Theresa Graham
Registrar General of Land Titles
Theresa.graham@novascotia.ca