Application for Assistance for Part-Time Studies

The Canada Student Loans Act and Regulations (CSLA) and / or the Canada Student Financial Assistance Act and Regulations (CSFAA) set forth the legal rights and obligations of a student and should be referred to in the case of uncertainty or dispute. With respect to the assistance available to Part-Time students through the Canada Student Financial Assistance Program (CSFA Program), the following definitions apply:

Canada Student Loan (CSL)	- financial assistance that you must pay back to help cover costs of post-secondary education at a designated college, university, or other post-secondary institution, as per the Canada Student Financial Assistance Regulations.
Canada Student Grant (CSG)	- financial assistance awarded to qualifying students to cover specific costs related to their studies, as outlined by the CSFA Program. - Grant amounts do not have to be repaid as long as you continue to meet the eligibility criteria is maintained for the duration of the study period for which the grant was awarded.

This application form will be used to assess your eligibility for Part-Time CSL assistance as well as CSG assistance for Part-Time Studies.

Incomplete applications cannot be processed. Please ensure that all requested information is provided. You must have a valid Social Insurance Number (SIN) to apply. Print clearly and sign the application in ink.

Instructions to the Applicant

Important:

 The province of Quebec, the Northwest Territories and Nunavut have chosen not to issue loans or grants under the Canada Student Financial Assistance Program. If you reside in these areas, please contact the appropriate office listed on our website (https://www.canada.ca/en/services/benefits/education/student-aid/grants- loans/province-apply.html) for information on student financial assistance.

* The provinces of Alberta, British Columbia, Newfoundland and Labrador, Ontario and Saskatchewan use a different application form for part-time assistance. If you are a resident in one of these provinces, you should contact your provincial student aid office or review their website for information on the application process.

- If you are a resident of Saskatchewan, Manitoba, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island or Yukon, and wish to apply for Part-Time assistance, fully complete sections A, B, and C of the attached application form.
- Have the Educational Institution where you are pursuing your Part-Time studies complete Section D.
- Submit the completed application form to the appropriate authority in the province in which you last resided for at least 12 months in a row (not including time spent as a full-time post-secondary student). If you are applying in the province or territory of SK, MB, NS, PEI, or YT, you must submit a copy of your Notice of Assessment and/or Proof of Income Statement (and a copy of your spouse's or common-law partner's Notice of Assessment, if applicable). If you are applying in the province of NB, you must only submit a copy of your Proof of Income Statement (and a copy of your spouse's or common-law partner's Proof of Income Statement, if applicable).
  See list of provincial and territorial student aid offices listed on our website (https://www.canada.ca/en/services/benefits/education/student-aid/grants-loans/province-apply.html).

Residency definition: The province or territory of residence of a part-time student is where they have last lived for at least 12 months in a row, not including time as a full-time post-secondary student (but including time as a part-time post-secondary student). A student who has lived in a jurisdiction for less than 12 months in a row, having relocated to be with their spouse or common-law partner may be funded by the new jurisdiction.

Gender options: The Gender field is mandatory. Therefore, please choose one of the options available on the form. If you are approved for student financial assistance, you can update your gender information by contacting the NSLSC at 1-888-815-4514. Although the gender field is mandatory, it does not impact the financial assistance assessment. This information is collected solely for analysis and research purposes.

Note: If you are a previous recipient of a grant or loan from the CSFA Program for Part-Time Studies, you must also provide documentation indicating successful completion of all previously funded course(s).

Note to Applicants with a Permanent Disability or a Persistent or Prolonged Disability

The CSFA Program provides for the option of being considered Full-Time or Part-Time for students with a permanent disability or a persistent or prolonged disability taking between 40% and 59% of a Full-Time course load. Additional assistance for students who demonstrate that they have a permanent disability or a persistent or prolonged disability which restricts their ability to participate in post-secondary studies is also available.

If you are an applicant with a permanent disability or a persistent or prolonged disability and you require additional funding to offset exceptional, education-related costs related to your permanent disability, or persistent or prolonged disability you may wish to contact your provincial student aid office and / or financial aid office at your Educational Institution and apply for the Canada Student Grant for Services and Equipment - Persons with Disabilities (CSG-DSE). Students who wish to apply for this grant, provided through the CSFA Program, must fill out an additional application.

Definitions

Permanent disability means any impairment, including a physical, mental, intellectual, cognitive, learning, communication or sensory impairment – or a functional limitation – that restricts the ability of a person to perform the daily activities necessary to pursue studies at a post-secondary school level or to participate in the labour force and that is expected to remain with the person for the person's expected life.

Persistent or prolonged disability means any impairment, including a physical, mental, intellectual, cognitive, learning, communication or sensory impairment - or a functional limitation – that restricts the ability of a person to perform the daily activities necessary to pursue studies at a post-secondary school level or to participate in the labour force and has lasted, or is expected to last, for a period of at least 12 months, but is not expected to remain with the person for the person's expected life.

Privacy Notice Statement

The information you provide is collected under the authority of the Canada Student Financial Assistance Act (CSFAA), and the Canada Student Loans Act (CSLA) for the administration of the Canada Student Financial Assistance Program (CSFA Program). The Social Insurance Number (SIN) is collected by the Minister of Employment and Social Development under the authority of the CSFAA, and in accordance with the Treasury Board Secretariat Directive on the Social Insurance Number. The SIN will be used as a file identifier and, along with the other information you provide, will also be used to validate your application, and to administer and enforce the CSFA Program.

Participation in the Canada Student Financial Assistance Program is voluntary. However, refusal to provide personal information will result in not being considered for a Canada Student Loan.

To administer and enforce the CSFA Program (including verification, audit and, where applicable, debt collection), we may share your information with your province/territory, the National Student Loans Service Centre, financial institutions, the Canada Revenue Agency, and credit bureaus/credit reporting agencies. We may also share information with previous lenders and other parties as needed to verify information and manage repayment.

Your personal information may be used or disclosed for policy analysis, research or evaluation purposes and disclosed to Statistics Canada for statistical and research purposes. These additional uses and disclosures of your personal information will never result in an administrative decision being made about you.

You have the right to the protection of, access to, and correction of your personal information under the Privacy Act. All uses and disclosures are described in Personal Information Banks Canada Student Financial Assistance ESDC PPU 030. Instructions for obtaining this information are outlined in the government publication entitled, Info Source, which is available at the following web site address: canada.ca/infosource-ESDC. Info Source may also be accessed online at any Service Canada Centre. You have the right to file a complaint with the Privacy Commissioner of Canada regarding the institution's handling of your personal information at: priv.gc.ca/en/report-a-concern.

Terms and Conditions

1. Eligibility for Program Assistance

The Canada Student Financial Assistance (CSFA) Program provides assistance for individuals who undertake their program of study on a Part-Time basis. In order to be eligible you must:

- be a Canadian citizen, a permanent resident of Canada, a protected person (as defined by the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act), or a Person registered as an Indian under the Indian Act;
- be a resident of a province or territory that issues Canada Student Loans and Grants for at least 12 months prior to submitting a loan application. Exception for students who have relocated to be with their spouse or common-law partner;
- demonstrate financial need;
- be enrolled in 20-59% of a full course load at a designated Educational Institution;
- have not reached the maximum $10,000 in Part-Time CSL; and
- not be in default of a full-time or part-time CSL and / or a Canada Apprentice Loan (CAL).

Note: If you are in default on Part-Time and / or Full-Time CSLs issued prior to August 1, 2000, contact your lender to inquire what process is required to remove the restricted status on your loan(s). If you are in default on previous loans issued after August 1, 2000, you will not be eligible for further assistance until you receive clearance from the CSFA Program. Please contact the National Student Loans Service Centre (NSLSC) at 1-888-815-4514. If you are in default on your CAL, you are not eligible to receive further student financial assistance until your restriction is removed. Please contact the Canada Apprentice Loan Service Centre at 1-855-844-5670 to inquire what process is required to remove the restricted status on your loan.

2. Eligible Costs - Applications will be assessed based on the following costs (if applicable):

- tuition including compulsory fees;
- books and supplies;
- transportation to and from classes;
- child care costs incurred to attend classes; and
- an incidental allowance of $10 per week, per course.

Applicants taking studies through correspondence or distance learning may not be assessed for child care and transportation costs, except for those periods where in-class attendance is mandatory (e.g., examinations, etc.).

3. Resources

An applicant (and spouse or common-law partner, if applicable) is required to report all family income as per Line 15000 of their 2025 Income Tax Return(s). The combined total family income (income before deductions) will determine eligibility for CSLs and CSGs.

4. Assistance Provided

Eligible applicants under the CSFA Program will be given assistance in the amount requested if the request is not more than the assessed need or the maximum amounts allowable.

5. Repayment

The principal amount of a student loan made to the borrower as a part-time student, and any interest, where applicable, commence to be payable by the borrower on the last day of the seventh (7th) month following the month in which the applicant ceases to be a Part-Time Student.

6. Verification

An applicant (and spouse or common-law) must sign a declaration releasing income tax data for verification.
An applicant (and spouse or common-law) must sign a certification on the application form that the information given is true and they are aware of the terms and conditions and will abide by them.

Pursuant to the Canada Student Financial Assistance Act, the Minister of Employment, Workforce Development, and Labour can deny eligibility for student financial assistance for up to five years and require immediate payment of grants and loans obtained through false statements, misrepresentation, or misleading information. This includes if a person, in respect of a student loan or other financial assistance to a student, knowingly makes any false statement or misrepresentation, including by omission, in an application or other document or knowingly provides any false or misleading information.

Details of your educational program and costs must be completed and signed by an official of your Educational Institution.
If you have previously received Part-Time CSLs, you must fully answer any questions concerning them.
